Hi Andrew,

Strata Tip of the Week - Strata Tips and Condo Clear

1. Strata Tips

Our goal when we first created the Strata Tip of the Week newsletter was to provide free educational content on strata-related topics. We saw a big gap between the expectations placed on real estate professionals and consumers when buying or selling strata-titled properties, and the resources available to them. Of course, the newsletter also provides us more exposure in the real estate industry.

There are now over 10,000 real estate professionals and consumers who subscribe to this newsletter. We want to thank you for all the kind words and valuable feedback you've provided! We are committed to continue providing you with free, informative content.

2. Our Services

After attending the PacificWest Real Estate Conference earlier this month, we were surprised by the number of people who complimented us on our weekly educational emails, but still had no idea what we do. So, here it is.

We founded Condo Clear in 2017 as the first (and still) only BCFSA licensed company in BC that provides strata document review services for Realtors and buyers. To date, we've completed over 3,000 strata reviews across British Columbia.

3. What's in It for You?

Saves You Time - We review the strata documents (typically 200-600 pages of documents) so you can focus on what you do best, like networking, marketing your business, and negotiating deals for your clients.

Reduce Your Risk of Liability - By referring your clients to us, you are advising them to have the strata documents reviewed by someone with specialized strata knowledge. Each page of every document is reviewed by a real person, a Review Advisor, and they all have direct experience managing strata corporations.

We are Licensed and Insured - Our brokerage and Review Advisors are all fully licensed by the BCFSA and carry E&O Insurance.

Here for You, Start to Finish - We don't just provide a summary of the documents and call it a day. We are available by phone or email to answer questions and provide clarification. We are 100% committed to ensuring your clients can make well-informed decisions.

Our Review Prices - In most cases, buyers pay for our services directly, just like they do for a home inspection. For a breakdown of our services and prices, check out our Pricing Brochure.

Still have questions?

We encourage you to speak with your colleagues. It's likely that someone you've worked with has benefitted from partnering with us. And be sure to check out our Google Reviews!

Lastly, contact us! We are available by phone at 250-853-7446 or email at info@condoclear.ca.
