Hi Andrew,

Strata Tip of the Week - The Importance of Obtaining a Current Version Form B: Information Certificate

Under the Strata Property Act, a buyer is entitled to obtain a current and complete Form B: Information Certificate. This document is issued by the strata corporation, or the strata manager on behalf of the strata, and contains:

- Some information about the strata corporation as a whole, and
- Some information specific to the strata lot.

When providing a Form B to a potential buyer or a real estate licensee, strata corporations, and by extension their strata managers, must use the most current version of the Form B available.

We continually find that many strata corporations and/or their strata managers are still using outdated or incomplete versions of the Form B, which can be problematic, as some important changes came into effect on April 1, 2023.

So, what's new with the Form B?

Strata corporations, and sections, now have to attach a summary of their insurance coverage with the Form B.

On the flip side, they are no longer required to provide the rental disclosure statement or identify the number of strata lots that are rented.

How current does the Form B need to be?

Check out our previous email titled "Make Sure the From B: Information Certificate is Current", to learn why we recommend the Form B never be older than 1 month.

That's it for this week. If you have any suggestions for other topics you'd like us to cover, please let us know at info@condoclear.ca.
